

2014 WWPC CONVENTION

Antalya, Turkey

The WWPC World came together in Antalya, Turkey for Four (4) Evenings & Three Full (3) Days of Professional Networking, Meetings, and Events.

Thousands of One on One Meetings were held by WWPC Members during the course of the Day Sessions of this Convention.

Social Business Networking continued during our Welcome Reception, the Lively Beach Party Evening, the Exotic Turkish Celebration Evening, the Ice Breaker Session Wine Tasting Event, the Ice Breaker Beer Tasting Event, Enjoyable Dinners every night, and lastly, our Farewell Cocktail. WWPC Conventions have preset 60+ hours of Networking Events scheduled during the course of our Networking, Paradise Style Business World Conferences.

Dear Leslie,

As a Managing Director of Prime Logistics, I want to express my sincere appreciation for all the efforts which everyone of us have attracted a great deal of attention and praise. It was an overwhelming success with more than 180 delegates from different countries that provided great intellectual and social interactions for everyone that turned this event into a smoothly running meeting from a very good atmosphere for our discussion. From the hotel, the table arrangement, fireworks display and the food was outstanding especially the cruise tours, It was amazing! We truly enjoyed everything.

This year's conference gave more useful information. Everything seemed to work out very well. Everyone did a superb job. That's why WWPC network convention is the one that I don't always want to miss because this network is not only about talking, instead it's about sharing, forming trust and helping one another toward goals.

I am assure you that we will benefit from this convention for years to come. Congrats for all of us for a both successful and memorable conference. We are fortunate to belong on this network. Once again thank you for another extraordinary convention. PRIME LOGISTICS will always be here to support you.

Best Regards,

Dear Fellow WWPC Members,

1st. Thank you Leslie, Jennifer & Ron and our Turkish host for the excellent party.....
Yes party....Some might call it a conference.....I call it a party as we were NOT only networking, we were establishing long term friendships and bonding as a big family.

I met some great old friends and made lots of new friends.
I hope we can keep bonding sprit going. Cannot wait for the next conference....

God bless till we meet again.

My Best Regards,

Good afternoon WWPC,

Amazing first time with all WWPC partners in Antalya, nice to see from business how people become friends, than grow up business at same time that the relationship develops!

Loved the recent WWPC Convention in Antalya, was our first WWPC convention as we are a new WWPC member, great networking with some really good contacts from all over the World!"

Like any other convention, you just never know what to expect beyond the usual: the traditional welcome over cocktails, catching up with fellow members (now turned really good friends), making acquaintance with the Johnny-come-latelys (oops, new members!) and of course keeping your ear to the ground lest you walk away from the gathering without getting to know the latest entries on the “Bad Egg” list!

Armed with my carry-bag, presentation-on-iPad, two small stacks of business cards (complete with my picture, yay!) and many miles of travel behind me, I touched down in Istanbul for my connecting flight to Antalya. The networking didn’t have to wait for the cocktails. Right across the aisle from me on the flight to Antalya was Prem Singh of Arian Logistics - the network’s Singapore agent. Now, who (in their right mind) wouldn’t want to do 1 hour, 15 minutes of life with Prem? You tell me.

And so begun the week of meetings, tours, cultural extravaganzas, and more meetings - all neatly tailored opportunities for personal interaction. Talk of networking paradise style! And even with the flurry of activity, I was afforded some valuable Me-time, a rarity in my day-to-day existence. On one of those occasions (and without too much thought to time) I walked the beach one evening. It’s only when the sun faded away on the horizon that I quickly realized I’d gone a little over 10km. And what do East Africans do when night falls and you are far, far away from home? RUN. In my enthusiasm to catch the farewell dinner, I ran past the Cornelia Diamond Hotel to the Cornelia Deluxe Hotel, 3km ahead! Mercifully, I was chauffeured - barefooted - to the right address.

It’s a privilege and thrill to belong to a network of like-minded individuals and companies. Am a Johnny-come-lately myself and more than any other freight grouping, the welcome here has been genuinely overwhelming. Our best wishes for the years ahead for every person and organization that calls WWPC home!

Dear Leslie,

Congratulations for a wonderfully organized Antalya 2014.

It was a great experience for me. I can give a 10/10 for the Venue, Arrangements, Ambience, Social Events and networking opportunities.

The evening events perfectly complimented the day full of networking activities. Just the 2nd conference for me and I can already feel the warmth that WWPC members carry, already making feel like a veteran member. It’s a Bigger Family Away from the Family for me.

Keep the Great work going!!!!

Dear Leslie & Jennifer and the whole WWPC team,

I would like to thank you very sincerely for organizing another excellent WWPC Convention, in our homeland this time. We were very glad to be able to play hosts to many friends/members that came from all over the globe. I am sure they have brought home lovely memories from the convention, pre and post excursions and from Turkey.

WWPC Conventions are always the highlights of our calendar. Doing business with a smile, making amazing friends, and all this in the most beautiful parts of the world. Your conventions are like a fresh breath in the old shipping world. Professional meetings all day and having fun like school kids in the evening!

I would like to thank all WWPC members/friends for the productive meetings, for their interest and trust in doing business with us.

To all members who could not be here in Turkey, we will see you on the next tour in Punta Cana.

Thank you so much again Leslie, for bringing this giant family together once more in a fantastic way!

Cheers,

Dear WWPC CONVENTION TEAM,

It was a pleasure meeting all the members who have joined the WWPC 2014 Convention in Antalya. We have strengthened existing contacts and met new members so it was very valuable for us, and we look forward to do business with even more members within the WWPC network.

For sure it helps to meet each other in person, it will make the communication more easy. Therefore we look forward already to the next conference to attend.

We wish to give the organisation of the WWPC Convention a big compliment for the excellent organisation of the meeting and the social events.

All the best for all our fellow members and look forward to come into contact with everyone, especially the ones we have not been speaking to so far.

Best Regards

MARVELOUS & WELL ORGANISED WWPC MEETING HELD IN ANTALYA,TURKEY.

Dear All,

Permit me to express my overwhelmed impression of the just concluded convention held in Antalya. My first impression was the venue of our meeting,called Cornelia gulf resort, where hospitality was wonderful. Venue of the meeting designated was very conducive,where networking with our honorable members were very accessible.in a nutshell, my first experience of WWPC meeting this year was memorable. I salute all our members on attendance!

The Convention in Antalaya was a wonderful experience for us and we thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to meet with fellow agents from all over the world.

The Resort and the food including the weather made the experience even more scintillating.

We the GT team, look forward to interacting with more members in the forthcoming meetings.

Dear Friends

For several years now, VANESP IBERICA is always looking forward to WWPC Conventions and we are quite used to see always our expectations overcome.

Well.... this year, Antalya convention was again in the same line and all efforts made by Leslie and its team were achieved to say... JOB WELL DONE.

It was rewarding to stay in touch again with all oldest friends, and creating and welcoming new ones, in what we call our WWPC Family. This, in the true sense of the word.

WWPC is more than just networking, is being a part of something great and spending a really good time among good people, doing good business

Adding all this, we were awarded Member of the Year 2014, highlighting the motivation and recognition towards our company and its commitment to WWPC Network Members

Looking forward to see you all the next ones..... have a great life.....

It was quite a pleasure to attend WWPC Worldwide Convention 2014 at Antalya, Turkey and like to thank Leslie and her team for this professional organized convention.

I am sure, we have been provided great opportunities for all of us who attended the meeting in a very pleasant atmosphere and of course not forgetting the very pleasant evenings, with serious business approach.

During the meeting, I have tried to meet all of the participants within the available time frame and discuss business. However, if I could not meet you I apologize for the same.

Should you require any assistance, please feel free, to contact us any time.

Dear WWPC Team,

It was an excellent arrangement and experience for every one who participated in this event, I personally felt one of the best conventions ever. It was very well organized and everyone well enjoyed by developing business and personal relationships. All the credit goes to WWPC who organized amazingly! Well done!

Dear WWPC,

Thank you (again) for the great conference.

I think the most unique thing about WWPC is that it truly brings people together.

Sure, all networks say it, but I have observed that true human bonds , true friendships, and true understanding between people from different cultures, backgrounds and continents, are forged here, at WWPC retreats.

It might be the great locations (if it feels like vacation it might as well be one), it might be the right kind of people that are attracted to this group (Leslie, you get full credit for that! :), or it might be pure accidents. Who knows. But in our digital world, it is relationships that beat the cost-effectiveness of the big freight forwarding corporations, and at that, WWPC has Panalpinas of the world on their back, bruised and crying.

The WWPC Convention Team,

“Pessimists create difficulties of opportunities whereas Optimists create opportunities out of difficulties.” Well in my humble opinion WWPC Group Members are a bunch of Optimists who could turn the table around by using such a Platform named as WWPC.The way WWPC Management Team triggers and stimulates the Members all year around and get them together under WWPC Convention Umbrella twice a year where we all feel like a family, it is highly commendable. I would propose that WWPC Group must be named as WWPC Family from now on as it deserves to be. Hats off to WWPC Management.

It was my first visit to any WWPC Convention as previously my younger Brother and Partner used to join. I have found this medium highly promising in terms of exploring new dimensions of business opportunities through sincere partnerships blended with electric leisure moments , a real fun gala.

Last but not the least, Lady of the event Leslie along with her terrific daughter Jennifer ,they both were well and truly a live wire taking care of each and everything.

I have no hesitation whatsoever in stating that Leslie is a true Team Leader and we are proud to be a part of WWPC Family.

Thumbs Up Leslie and Long Live WWPC.
